NB this workshop was filmed right at the start of our first national lockdown in the UK! It has a 'homemade' feel, offering a warm and friendly workshop experience.

This workshop is about using simple beginnings to build exciting, dynamic pieces of work that respond to the beauty and energy of flower forms. From building surfaces, to layering marks and colour, this workshop will help you respond intuitively and emotively to a floral subject matter.

You will explore a variety of mixed media process in the course and will be armed with ideas to take forward into new works.
